

NJ School of Conservation, CCLC Professional Development Climate Change Workshop Agenda: Climate Change's Impact on Wildlife

Wednesday July 30th or Friday October 17th (optional early arrival to alleviate the stress of morning travel)
5:00 - 6:00p Kittatinny Hall	Arrival, settle into cabins
6:00 - 7:00p Kittatinny Hall	Dinner (bring your own)
7:00 p - ? Piney Point	Fishing, campfire, s'mores and stargazing
Thursday July 31st or Saturday October 18th
7:00 - 7:50 am Piney Point Platform	Early morning yoga (optional) Cindy Chiariello: Balanced and Flow Yoga / Licensed Social Worker
8:00 - 8:30 am Big Timbers	Breakfast for overnight guests
8:30 - 9:00 am Kittatinny Hall	Teacher tool kit pick up / Stipend paperwork / Light Breakfast
9:00 - 9:30 am Kittatinny Hall	Welcome & Introduction of presenters & attendees Tanya Sulikowski, Director of Education, NJSOC Session Resources / NJ Climate Change Standards & Grade Bands
9:30 - 10:30 am Kittatinny Hall	Coffee & Climate Science: Topic: Wildlife Bruce Taterka, Environmental Science, Mendham High School (Retired)
10:30 - 10:45 am	STRETCH BREAK
10:45 - 11:30 am Kittatinny Hall	Making Space for Climate Science: Having a stake in climate science Erin Colfax, Climate Change Consultant
11:45 - 12:30 pm Big Timbers	Lunch
12:45 - 2:00 pm Nature Center	Salamanders Tell the Story of Climate Change: Cover Board Research 7/31/25 - Tanya Sulikowski, Director of Education, NJSOC 10/18/25 - Veronica Puza, Naturalist, Monmouth County Parks
2:15 - 3:30 pm Flat Brook River	Painting the impact of climate on NJ Brook Trout Ashley Houser, Art Educator, Unity Charter School
3:30 - 4:00 pm Flat Brook River	Reflection and Share Out / Evolution of Teaching Practice Acknowledgements / Gratitudes
4:00p	Departure